Schedules can be posted to those who do not have access to the internet. Please advise the Convenor if required.

GENERAL

1. These Rules apply to the Music, Dance, and Speech and Drama sections of The Ipswich Junior Eisteddfod Society Inc.
2. Rules and Conditions as printed in the Schedules and Programmes are valid for, and continue to be valid for, the period of the Eisteddfod.
3. Competitors, teachers, parents and guardians will be regarded as being conversant with the rules of the Society. Lack of knowledge will not be accepted as a bona fide reason for the infringement of any rule.
4. Items are open to amateurs only. "Amateurs" are persons who do not earn the major portion of their income from the practice of Music, Dance, or Speech and Drama. Amateurs include individuals who have spot-parts in Theatrical Performance, Concerts, sporadic events and advertising campaigns.
5. Competitors compete at their own risk.
6. The Committee reserves the following rights:
 - to amend the programme as necessary.
 - to refuse any entry.
 - to ask any competitor to provide proof of age.
 - to appoint a substitute adjudicator.
 - to adjudicate on any misinterpretation of these rules.
 - to adjudicate on any issue not covered by these rules.
 - to divide an item if there are excessive entries.
 - to cancel an item if there are insufficient entries.
 - to combine age groups if there are insufficient entries.
7. Decisions of the Committee are final and binding on all matters.
8. Protests must be in writing, signed and lodged with the convenor within half an hour of the reason for the protest occurring. Protests must be accompanied by a $10.00 fee. This amount will be forfeited if the protest is considered invalid, or is overruled by the Committee. Protests can be made only by competitors, their teachers, parents or guardians.
9. The adjudicator's decision is final within the bounds of the Rules and Conditions.
10. The adjudicator has the discretion, following concurrence with the Committee, to withhold a prize.
11. All Awards and Bursaries are awarded at the discretion of the Adjudicator and/or the relevant committees.
12. Adjudication sheets will be available, free of charge, at the conclusion of each item. These may be obtained at the rear of the venue.
13. Competitors, teachers, parents, guardians or other interested parties, shall not discuss competition related matters with the adjudicator. Communication with the adjudicator at the adjudication station is forbidden. All enquiries shall be directed to the Convenor.
14. Competitors must report to the Conductor of Sessions before the start of an item. Permission to compete will not be granted to any competitor who has not reported before the final performance has begun in an item.
15. Competitors must not perform out of the order as printed in the programme, without prior permission of the Convenor or the Deputy.
16. All persons wishing to enter the venue must purchase an entry ticket. Competitors will gain free admission to the session in which they are competing, but not to other sessions.
17. Naked flames or fuelled lamps will not be allowed on stage under any circumstances.
18. Any competitor who uses a prop in an unsafe manner, or who acts in a manner that could result in personal injury or property damage, while on stage or backstage, will be disqualified.
19. If a 240V extension lead is required, it will be provided by the Convenor. Please notify the Convenor one (1) month prior to the start of the Eisteddfod.
20. Competitors must wear suitable footwear at all times when side stage.
21. Collection and engraving of Cups, Trophies and Shields etc are the responsibility of the winners.
22. Perpetual trophies must be returned to the Convenor one (1) month prior to the start of the following Eisteddfod.
23. Photocopying facilities are not available at the venue.

MUSIC

1. Competitions may be held concurrently in the George Hogg Auditorium, Lockyer and Cunningham Rooms of the Ipswich Civic Centre. If a competitor is scheduled to appear in more than one room at the same time, the competitor must report to the Conductor of Sessions at each venue.
2. Music selections for all items are Own Choice unless otherwise stated. Music for Own Choice items must be provided for the Adjudicator. Folders labelled with the item number and description will be placed on a table in the foyer before the start of each session. It is the responsibility of competitors to ensure that their music, labelled with the item and competitor number, is placed in the correct order within the folder. Competitors are required to enter the title of their Own Choice piece against their name on the Item Announcement Sheet attached to the appropriate folder. Folders will remain on the table until the beginning of the item. Original print music will be returned to the competitor.
3. To comply with copyright requirements, only original music, or authorised copies may be used for all performances.
 - An AMCOS Form must be completed prior to performing. The photocopy will be destroyed after the competition.
 - Copies of the AMCOS Form can be found on the IJES website and will be included in the programme.
 - The Ipswich Junior Eisteddfod Society Inc will not be responsible for any breach of copyright.
4. (a) Own Choice music selections cannot be used for more than one item in the Eisteddfod (with exception to all Gladys Payne Memorial finalists where a section item may be repeated (excluding Music Theatre & Film & Television items).
5. The standard of Own Choice music will be taken into consideration by the Adjudicators.
6. A teacher or parent of a competitor will not be allowed on stage during a performance unless acting as, or assisting, an accompanist. A teacher or parent of a competitor cannot act as a page turner for the competitor in the Piano and Instrumental Items.
7. Competitors must not rehearse or warm-up either backstage or side stage.
8. To be eligible to compete in a Championship Item, a competitor must have performed in at least one relevant age solo item.
9. Competitors in Championship Items must report to the Session Announcer at the beginning of the Item. Competitors who are concerned at the possibility of a clash of items should alert the Convenor of the situation.
10. Various Awards and Bursaries are available to competitors and will be awarded by the adjudicator. See Awards and Bursaries.
11. To be eligible for Aggregate Awards, competitors must perform in all of the relevant items as listed in Awards and Bursaries.
12. The Aggregate Awards will be given to competitors who have performed and attained the highest combined aggregate points in the relevant items.
13. Aggregate points are calculated on the basis of four points for first place, three points for second place, two points for third place, one and a half points for Very Highly Commended and one point for Highly Commended. In the event of a tie, the adjudication marks will be used to determine the winner.
14. The Committee makes no restrictions as to the key in which items are performed. The pitch of the piano will be A440.
15. Competitors in Vocal, Piano and Instrumental Consolation Items must not have won a first prize in the appropriate Section at The Ipswich Junior Eisteddfod previously.
16. Competitors in Duet/Trio items must compete in items relevant to the age of the older/oldest competitor.
17. Competitors in Solo items may only perform once in any item. Competitors in Duet & Trio items may perform more than once in any item. – CHANGE OF RULE
18. The piano will be placed in a position determined by the Management Committee at the beginning of each session. The piano will not be moved with the exception of Music Theatre Items.
19. All Choral Items are to be performed on the choir risers, unless otherwise indicated.
20. A chorister may perform more than once in any item provided that they do not perform in more than one choir from the same school, community or church group.
21. A member of a Band or Ensemble may play more than once in the same item.
22. Time Limits will only apply to Choirs, Bands and Ensembles – 10 minutes maximum.
23. In Piano and Instrumental items, repeats are optional.
24. Piano Solo items must be performed without accompaniment.
25. Music stands will be provided for individual and group instrumental items. (25 stands available)
26. Microphones are not to be used in any performances.

27. The accompanists must be paid a fee by the competitor.
28. PROGRAMMING. The Convenors reserve the right to divide or combine sections, and to amend the programme in any way that will facilitate fairer competition or more effective programming. Amendments will be duly advised in the programme. Should there be fewer than 3 competitors in any item, the Convenors reserve the right to cancel the item, and will notify, by phone, those who have already entered. Should any section be too large to facilitate adjudication, the Convenors will divide it, thus giving competitors a fairer chance. Prizes will then be presented for each section.

CODE OF ETHICS

Performers are expected to afford the same consideration to others as they would expect for themselves, at all times. To ensure that adequate consideration is given, we ask that you understand and abide by the following rules:

- Give due acclaim and encouragement to each other in the spirit of friendship in which the Eisteddfod movement has been fostered over the years.
- Do not attempt to intimidate or distract a performer at any time.
- Remain seated while a performance is in progress.
- Maintain silence from the time that a performer appears on stage until the end of the performance.

DRESS CODE

The Ipswich Junior Eisteddfod Society Inc supports a Dress Code for all performers throughout the Eisteddfod. All parents and teachers are urged to observe this standard of dress. Formal or semi-formal dress is encouraged where appropriate. Good casual is suitable for day competition; however, jeans or joggers are not acceptable. Midriffs are not to be shown.

AUDITORIUM RULES

SILENCE

Members of the audience are requested to maintain silence and to remain seated during performances, adjudications and announcements. Doors will be closed, and entry to or exit from the venue will not be permitted during performances.

PHOTOGRAPHY/RECORDING

Under copyright law and child protection requirements, the use of all cameras (including mobile phone cameras) and video recorders is forbidden, unless specifically authorised by The Ipswich Junior Eisteddfod Society Inc for official/publicity purposes.

MOBILE PHONES

All mobile phones must be switched off or placed on silent.
