To Vocal Teachers and Students

As coordinator of the Vocal Section of the Taree and District Eisteddfod, I am proud of our eisteddfod as we aim for a very high standard, whilst also striving to create a supportive, friendly environment for singers. So, I am inviting teachers from conservatoriums and private studios to send your students here to compete. We particularly want to extend a warm welcome to special needs singing students and their support person/carer, should they require their assistance on stage.

2017 is a special year for our eisteddfod committee, as we will be celebrating the 50th annual Taree and District Eisteddfod. We live in a very picturesque area of the Mid-North Coast. Competing in a regional eisteddfod has many advantages:

- It gives students an opportunity to refine their chosen repertoire and compete before the bigger city competitions.
- It builds performance and “nerves” muscles.
- The prize money overall is very generous.
- The prize money for the Open Age Aria competition is $1000.
- There are two scholarships of $750 for further tuition.
- The timing of the Vocal Section coincides with the 2nd week of the NSW school holidays, which makes it easier for participants to come here.
- We have excellent accompanists.

TENTATIVE PERFORMANCE DATES ARE 18 – 22 APRIL 2017

We would love to see you in our Manning Valley. Any queries – please email me at: dsuther3@gmail.com

Yours musically!

Deirdre Sutherland
