GUIDELINES

1. General

- a) A section may be scheduled on either day. After registrations close entrants will receive an email detailing day and order of sections.
- b) Programs are produced in digital format and will be emailed, detailing final times, to each entrant after repertoire forms have been received.
- c) Entrants are required to submit a Repertoire Form/Copyright Form detailing pieces, composers and duration of pieces, three weeks prior to the competition. This ensures accurate scheduling of the competition.
- d) If number of entries is high, in the interest of room capacity, the committee may split age groups.
- e) Advance notification must be given if unable to perform on the day (no money will be refunded, unless a medical certificate is produced).
- f) For sections with fewer than 6 entries, 1st prize only will be awarded.
- g) For sections with ten or more entries, 3rd place will be awarded.
- h) Sections with 4 or fewer competitors may be cancelled.
- i) As part of your entry, you agree that the entrant's name may be included in QMTA publications and on the QMTA website.
- j) Use of image/s - by agreeing to the Terms and Conditions you are permitting the use of your image/s or that of your child for use in QMTA Publications and social media. If you have an objection to this condition please express this to the QMTA office (e-mail: qmta@qmta.org.au).
- l) Duet sections may be combined at the discretion of the committee.
- l) A performance refund of $20 is applicable for sections 18 years and under, Diploma and Concerto. The refund will be given only to those entrants who have performed at the competition in their relevant section/s.

2. All Sections

- a) Competitors are permitted to play in ONE solo section (Sections 4 to 9), ONE duet section (Sect. 15, 16 and 17). Entrants are also permitted to play in the Baroque, Concerto and Diploma Section along with their solo and duets section. Also see 'Duets' point a).
- b) All Sections will be judged by one (1) adjudicator, except for Section 8 (15 years and under), Section 9 (18 years and under), Section 13 (Concerto) and Section 14 (Diploma) which will be judged by two adjudicators. They will decide 1st, 2nd and 3rd (if applicable) prize winners and highly commended. A winner and place getters will be chosen from each section.
- c) Music pieces being performed are not to be repeated in more than one section.

3. Solo Sections

- a) Section 1 (Novice) is open to entrants of any age; studying up to but no higher than grade 1; perform repertoire of grade one or below from any exam syllabus; have received tuition for a maximum of three years. Novice entrants are not permitted to compete in this section more than twice. Novice entrants are not permitted to enter any other solo section. Students who place in this section will be ineligible to enter it again in subsequent years.
- b) Section 2 (Intermediate) is open to entrants of 10 years and under; studying up to but no higher than grade 3; Intermediate entrants are not permitted to enter or compete in any other solo section.
- c) Section 3 (Intermediate) is open to entrants of age 14 years and under; studying no higher than grade 5; Intermediate entrants are not permitted to enter or compete in any other solo section.
- d) Section 13: Concerto – Age is open, performance piece must be an original (no arrangements permitted to be performed); must supply own accompanist, who may be the teacher. The winner will be required to perform at a 2020 concert held by the Brisbane Symphony Orchestra; practice, date and time will be advised after the competition.

4. Duet Sections

- a) If duet performers fall into both age limits – 9 years & under, 14 & under and 18 years & under - e.g. if one pianist is 9 years old and the partner is 13 years, the older age category, i.e., 14 years & under is the section to enter. A duet entrant may not enter in one section more than once but may enter with a different partner in a different age group.

5. Music

- a) Time limits will be strictly adhered to. Any performer exceeding a time limit will be adjudicated but not eligible for a place or prize.
- b) Competitors are permitted to play from original and some photocopies of music (in the instance of difficult page turning - please see the bottom of Repertoire/Copyright Form for further information (found on the QPC webpage). However, competitors are not permitted to play from photocopied music only; the latter will automatically disqualify a competitor.
- c) Each competitor must bring and submit their Repertoire/Copyright Form and hard copy of music, to the registration desk on competition day/s.
- d) Each competitor must submit their repertoire via the QPC webpage by Sunday 14 July. Failure to submit repertoire on time will result in entry being nullified.
