SPEECH AND DRAMA – RULES AND CONDITIONS

1. Solo competitors must compete in their own age group. All Speech and Drama performances (excluding Prepared Reading Sections) are to be from memory.
2. Entrants must appear in their section in program order, or forfeit their right to perform, except where clashes between art forms occur, and prior arrangement has been made with a committee member at the Eisteddfod Office.
3. Where a large number of competitors dictates that any Section needs to be split into sub-sections, A, B, C etc, competitors will not be allowed to change to another sub-section.
4. No prompting shall be permitted from the audience or side stage. Competitors who are prompted by a person other than the adjudicator will be disqualified, and the person prompting will be asked to leave. No prompting shall be permitted from the wings of the theatre for groups.
5. If performances exceed time limits points may be deducted or the competitor disqualified at the adjudicator's discretion.
6. Material being presented should be age appropriate and suitable for viewing by audiences. Please note that material based around themes of a highly sensitive nature such as abuse, violence, suicide or similar traumatic events should be avoided because the committee are not in a position to provide appropriate and timely content warnings to its audiences. Such topics should only be performed by senior students in the 15-18yrs or Open sections. If the material presented is considered to be unsuitable for the age and section entered, the competitor may be penalised or disqualified.
7. Competitors are not permitted to perform an item or part thereof which they have performed during the previous year's Eisteddfod. This includes Drama and Music Theatre groups, where the competitor is deemed to be the studio or group they are performing under. Choral Speaking groups are excluded from this rule (ie Sections 473 to 482.)
8. Competitors are not permitted to perform the same script, or part thereof, in more than one section of the eisteddfod.
9. No member of a duologue or group will be permitted to perform with another duologue or group in the same section. (In the duologue sections all the details of both performers must appear on the entry form).
10. Duologue partners may be from different age groups; however, the competitors must perform in the age group of the elder student.
11. No parent or teacher will be allowed on stage with a competitor during a performance unless as a Conductor.
12. No sand, liquid, powder, glitter, straw, glass or dangerous props will be permitted. Lighting requirements for Musical Theatre Groups, Dramatic Excerpt Groups and Group Mime sections should be discussed with the Stage Manager prior to the commencement of the relevant section. Lighting/Sound/Stage options for these sections are outlined on the final page of this schedule.
13. The Committee considers it highly unethical for a teacher or student to copy the work of another teacher or student particularly in regard to original work of a teacher or student.
14. In all Dramatic Excerpt and Musical Theatre Sections, five minutes will be allowed for setting the stage and five minutes allowed for striking the stage.

15. In Sections 473 – 481 group members must be students of the same Primary or Secondary School.
16. Where the number of voices is stated, the number must be strictly adhered to, otherwise the group will be disqualified. No interchange of choir members will be allowed during Section competition.
17. No member of one choir will be permitted to perform with another choir in the same Section.
18. Choirs will appear in order determined by ballot before the official program is printed and the order of appearance shall be as printed in the program.
19. In Sections 403, 407, 411, 415, 419 pieces are to be of a serious nature. Material that is of a humorous nature may have points deducted or be disqualified.
20. In Sections 403, 407, 411, 415, 419, 424, 430, 436, 442, 448, 452 slam poetry is not permitted.

Performances in the Theatre:

If you are performing in the theatre, you are required to register for your section with the Stage Manager. Arrive early and register your competitor number with the Stage Manager at least 15 minutes before your section begins. Be prepared to answer any questions about your performance, e.g. will you be starting on or off-stage? Will you finish by leaving the stage? What props do you require?

Once you have registered, please wait in the nominated area, as directed by the Stage Manager or marshal. If you are not present when you are called to the stage, you may miss your chance to perform. If you are waiting backstage, please be quiet as any noise backstage can be heard by the audience and may disrupt the person performing onstage. Persons making too much noise sidestage will be asked to leave, and may therefore miss their opportunity to perform onstage.

Performances in the Space

When you arrive, you will be required to register for your solo or duo section. Please register with the marshal outside the Green Room and provide any additional information such as title and whether you start on/off stage.

For performances requiring costume changes, the Green Room will be available for competitors to change costumes. Please note that makeup is only allowed in the smaller dressing rooms within the Green Room (ie no makeup in the main area of the Green Room). Due to limited space, performers should arrive with hair and makeup already done, where possible.

Once a competitor is dressed for their section, they will be marshalled in the hallway outside the Green Room and lined up as per the order in the program. For sections involving costumes/props, this is where the competitor will wait during their section while waiting to perform, and they will enter the stage from this hallway. For other sections, competitors will be seated in the audience during the section, and access the stage from there – for these sections the competitors will be taken into the audience as a group at the start of their section. Speech and Drama teachers will be permitted to wait with their students during a section.

Information regarding Group Speaking Choirs for Schools Sections

Schools will need to email the number of students performing in the choir - please include staff in those numbers. These numbers shall be used for the allocated seating requirements. If more than four staff are required to accompany a choir, please contact the Eisteddfod Committee.

Finalised choir numbers are to be emailed to office.mackay@bigpond.com by 13th September.

Rules for use of Green Room

- Privacy screens will be erected in the Green Room to designate the area for Eisteddfod Officials. Please do NOT enter the area beyond the privacy screens (which is clearly signed) as this area is reserved for Eisteddfod Officials only.
- Please note that beyond the privacy screens, the tea/coffee facilities and food provided is for Eisteddfod Officials only, so please do not help yourself to those items.
- The Green Room has been allocated to drama studios as a changing space only, not a common area, and like all other dressing rooms in the MECC, there is to be NO food or drink whatsoever consumed inside it (other than bottled water).
- The Green Room shall only open to competitors a half an hour prior to each session. ie 8am for the morning session, 12.30pm for the afternoon session and 6pm for the evening session.
- Once their section has commenced, competitors should not be waiting in the Green Room, but rather lined up on the marshalling chairs outside the space.
- Finally, please ensure that noise levels in the Green Room (and in the hallway outside) are kept to a minimum.

The Green Room is a shared space with Eisteddfod officials, and all competitors, parents and teachers alike must abide by the rules outlined above. Persons who do not abide by the rules will be asked to leave.

* A "wash" is a general "fill" of coloured light across the stage through the use of lighting fixtures using coloured lighting gels. It is important to let the MECC staff know that this will be used as the gels can run out and if they are unaware it may not be available on the day which is important because a number of studios use this on Groups Day.

^ A cyclorama or cyc is a large white curtain, positioned at the back of the stage area, used for projection or lighting purposes.
