4. DISCREPANCIES

Any discrepancies found please email secretary@cairnseisteddfod.org

No further changes will be made once the Programme has gone to Print.

5. TIME LIMIT:

Please read and note this rule carefully to avoid a point's penalty or disqualification.

TIME LIMITS WILL BE STRICTLY ADHERED TO. There is no leeway with extra time.

NOTE: Please note that there is no minimum time limit and items may be as brief as teachers consider desirable.

NO TAGS will be permitted in any routines. Non-music exit tags are considered part of the routine and will be included in the time limit.

Please ensure the performance is within the allotted time limit. Your co-operation is expected by the Programme Planning Committee.

Timing of sections will occur during the Eisteddfod and a bell may be rung if overtime and the performance must cease.

Performances are timed to include the Introduction and the exit.

6. MUSIC

The Cairns Eisteddfod will be moving to a system whereby competitors will be required to upload their music prior to the commencement of the eisteddfod. Competitors and teachers will be advised of the format required and procedures by the 1st of April. Competitors should also have a backup copy of their music in a CD format with them at competition in case of a problem.

RULES & CONDITIONS

DANCE

7. PROPS:

Only props that will fit through a standard door will be allowed to be used.

All props must be able to be placed on stage and removed in one minute each way. Timing for an item may begin prior to item commencing if the setting of the props is taking too long. A bell will be rung to indicate that timing has commenced.

The competitor will be able to complete the item, but no mark will be given.

Only props that are required for that session will be allowed backstage and must be removed immediately after that session. No props will be stored at the CPAC or any other venue that is being used.

No responsibility will be taken for any props that are outside CPAC or any other venue being used.

During an item, all props are to be manipulated by the competitor only. No person or persons will be allowed on stage to hold or manipulate props even if unseen. (Allowances may be made in the case of breakage just prior to the performance.

The back-stage managers decision will be final.)

Acro-Dance will be distinguished from Up-tempo Jazz, Contemporary and Lyrical by the following definitions:

Up-tempo Modern/Jazz: Performance must consist of jazz technique; splits, floor rolls. Can only contain a maximum of 2 acrobatic type movements to be included in this category.

Lyrical: Performance consisting of dynamic emotion and expressive movements demonstrated with fluidity, balance, extension and control. Can only contain a maximum of 2 acrobatic type movements to be included in this category.

Contemporary: Interpretive dance using balance and control. Must be contemporary style. Can only contain a maximum of 2 acrobatic type movements to be included in this category.

Acro-Dance: Performance must contain acrobatic/gymnastic passes, walkovers etc. Definite dance choreography should be used to blend acro tricks into the routine. A minimum of 3 acrobatic moves must be included in this dance for it to be entered into the Acro-Dance section.

An acro/gymnastic trick: is defined as movements that pass through or stop at a fully inverted (upside down) position with both feet off the floor (the torso passing or stopping directly over the top of one's head/shoulders). Examples of tricks include: front and back walk overs, front and back handsprings, handstands and elbow stands, cartwheels and aerials etc.
