JAZZ ADJUDICATOR

We welcome Kelsi Geraghty as our adjudicator. She is an Australian choreographer and performer born in South Africa. Kelsi started dance at the age of 3 and only began competing in solos at age 12, where she won numerous overall awards and invitations overseas.

Kelsi has been teaching and choreographing dance for 8 years and has worked at various events, studios, TVCs, and model shoots around Australia, as well as choreographing overseas for Singapore. Mentored by Marko Panzic, she has also now choreographed for Dream Creatives around Australia, as well as being nominated for the Next Choreographer Finalist for the Australian Dance Festival in 2025.

She has also partnered with Cosi G Dancewear for the 2nd year in a row, launching two collaborative clothing items. Kelsi specialises in various styles including contemporary, lyrical, and jazz, and loves strong technique and movement quality!

HIP HOP ADJUDICATOR

Winston Sky is one of Australia's leading professional dancers and creative mentors, with a depth of experience well beyond his years. Winston Sky's career continues to evolve across multiple arenas, most recently featuring as a dancer in Marvel's Shang-Chi and Disney's Zombies 4, and as a contributing choreographer on Carmen, directed by Benjamin Millepied. In 2025, he served as the head choreographer for Guy Sebastian's Logies performance and was the assistant choreographer for TikTok Awards guest artist Amarni White. His resume includes working with international superstars such as Katy Perry, Ellie Goulding, Rita Ora, Tones and I, and Jason Derulo, solidifying his place on the global stage. In recognition of his talent and creative vision, Winston was awarded Australia's Next Choreographer by @dancekarau at the @ausdancefest in September 2023.
