Rules of the Royale Performing Arts Challenge

(Groups)

- The Adjudicator's decision is final.
- All performers and teachers are expected to display good sportsmanship. Failure to do so will result in immediate disqualification.
- No competitor is to have participated in any class or any workshop conducted by the adjudicator within the six (6) months prior to competition.
- No entry will be accepted without full payment. There will be no refund if, after entries close, the troupe does not perform at this event.
- Age will be determined as at the 1st of January 2020. There is to be no performer older than the age group they have entered however performers MAY enter the next age group above in order to perform routines. Organisers reserve the right to ask for proof of age. It is recommended to have a copy of the performer's birth certificate readily available.
- This performing arts challenge is open to amateur performers only.
- For 2020 regionals we are allowing multiple entries within a genre as follows;
 - All sections - Maximum of 2 routines may be entered and performed
- Prompting will not be permitted in any section other than 6/u or special needs performers.
- Competitors who commence a performance and stop or leave the stage may not be permitted to re-start and will not receive a placing, unless the fault is of a mechanical/technical nature, or otherwise agreed by the Organisers and the Adjudicator. No group will be penalised for technical issues.
- There shall be no repeating of routines no matter the competitor, genre or age group. A costume change does not constitute a new routine.
- It is a condition of entry to the venue that there is to be no private videography, photography or audio recording of any kind. Failure to comply with this rule will result in disqualification of the performer and the removal of anyone involved. A separate area for photos will be provided.
- Mobile phones must be turned off or placed on silent when inside the venue.
- Competitors should arrive at least 45 minutes prior to the scheduled start of their first session. Individual section times will not be provided.
- Music may be emailed ahead of the competition start date and no later than 24 hours before the start of competition. You must name your file as follows;

Act#-Genre-StudioName.mp3 (eg 123-Jazz-StudioZ.mp3)

If not emailed prior, music must be submitted via USB within the 60 minutes before each SESSION. You may submit music for all your routines at once. It is essential that you have a backup of music readily available. Music submission will not be accepted at any other time.

- The organisers reserve the right to adjust the running order within a session at any time. This may be to accommodate a costume change for example and any deviation from the published program will not disadvantage any performers.
- The organisers reserve the right to merge age groups and/or genres if deemed appropriate for competition purposes. If this occurs the ages of groups will be noted in the program.

Royale Awards

- Royale Awards are an extra acknowledgment for extraordinary performances.
- All entered groups are eligible for these special awards.
- Royale Awards will be awarded from a range of criteria including;
 - displaying correct technique within the nominated routine genre
 - use of stage, music and talent of groups to show creativity, stage presence and an outstanding performance quality
- Royale Awards are not a separate section but rather an adjudicator's choice award.
- Royale Awards will be presented at the completion of the groups event.

Prizes

- Prizes will be awarded in accordance with entry numbers per section;
 - 1-3 entries = 1st place only,
 - 4-5 entries = 1st & 2nd places only,
 - 6 or more entries = 1st, 2nd & 3rd places.
- Highly Commended awards shall be allocated at the discretion of the Adjudicator.
- The Adjudicator is given the right to withhold any prize where sufficient merit has not been displayed.
