Age –

SOLOS: Competitors ages are as of the 1st of January 2023. EG if you turn 11 in May 2023 you are considered 10 and go in the under 12 section. Duos and trios are taken from whoever is the oldest competitor.

TROUPES: We do average age at this competition, take every competitors age from the 1st of January and divide it with the amount of dancers in that group. MAKE SURE TO HAVE ALL COMPETITORS AGES ON HAND IN CASE THE AVERAGE AGE IS QUESTIONED

The closing date is definite unless the event sells out before.

The organisers have the right to disqualify competitors if there is any type of abuse directed at staff or other competitors.

All competitors must purchase a competitors pass in order to participate.

All our events are non-refundable. Once you have made payment, refunds or transfers are not permitted. If you are unable to attend your event due to an injury you must contact Capital within 7 days of the completion of the event to discuss if you are eligible for a transfer or credit note. You will need to provide documentation requested by Capital. Each individual situation will be assessed and Capital has the final say.

If the event has to be cancelled you will be refunded the entry amounts (excluding the site fees)

Combined sections: Sections will be combined if there are 2 or less competitors in the section.

NOVICE/OPEN SECTIONS: Capital at the moment does not do novice sections however if the section has 14 or more dancers the section will be split by ability and whoever entered them will be questioned as to which section they should go into.

Once you arrived you must check in at the front desk so we know you will be competing, If you don't check in we will assume you have not shown up and you will be announced as not competing.

Please arrive 1 hour early for time to check in, stretch and in case we are running early.

No videos or photos to be taken during the performance at any time
Areas of the venue must be clean once you leave. If your area is visibly dirty the dance school/competitors you will have additional charges for cleaning and damages.

In the event of competitors wanting to go in a different order they must tell the side stage manager at the start of the section.
