7-8yrs - Petite
9-10yrs - Junior
11-12yrs - Pre-Teen
13-14yrs - Teen
15/O - Senior

Age is cut off from Jan 1, 2025

DuoTrio/Quartet age is calculated by average age as of Jan 1

SECTION LEVELS:

Beginner - First 12 months performing solos

Rising Star (specially restricted/novice) - Have never won that style of solo

Shining Star (restricted and open) - Have won that style of solo

Super Star (advanced/elite) - You MUST enter this level if any of the following apply:

- Have won an overall title at a National/International Level (e.g. Dancer of the Year)
- Participate in part time/full time dance or distance education (including missing regular school to attend dance lessons outside of sport extension programs) in order to enhance their dance training.
- Are a dancer who is predominately focused on Classical Ballet (trains over 4hrs ballet/week includes in person or on online)
- Train more than 15+ hrs per week

If any of your routines qualify for Super Star level you must dance in Super Star sections for the entirety of the event.

All Abilities - for those competitors with any need for assistance due to disability

STAR CHAMPIONSHIP:

This section is offered in all age divisions and only a winner and runner up will be announced (except for 4/5/6yrs they will all place). No repeats are allowed. This must be a new routine that has not been performed in any other section during the event. The routine can be any style except for song and Dance or acro routines as we want all dancers to be judged on the same amount of dance content/technical elements. This is offered as either Non-Tap or Tap Championship section.
