About Us

Infinity Education Dance and Vocal Groups is founded by Jenny & Nigel Jones. Jenny & Nigel have worked in the performing arts industry for over 30 years. They have done everything from operating a dance studio, operating one of Australia's largest dance & vocal competitions, working with industry professionals to reshape the Australian performance industry.

Here at Infinity Child Safety & production are extremely important and we have a number of procedures in place to ensure our events are as safe as possible. This includes all staff having Working with Children checks, police checks & are first aid trained.

Any adult over the age of 18 going backstage to assist a group must have a Working with children's check, this includes teachers & assistants. You will be required to nominate all support staff and supply this information prior to the event. Photo ID will be request at arrival.

Event Overview

Infinity is a celebration of young talent, providing students from both public and private primary and high schools a platform to showcase their skills, grow artistically, and gain valuable performance experience. The event features performances that are judged by a panel of two judges, awards, and a final.

Please ensure that your entries are submitted as early as possible, as there are limits on the number of entries allowed in each section. For assistance with the online registration process, please contact Jenny at 0423241774.

By participating in Infinity Education Dance and Vocal Competition, you agree to adhere to all the rules, regulations, terms, and conditions outlined in this syllabus. Please note that Infinity's competitions public liability insurance does not fully cover injuries to performers. Therefore, individuals and schools are responsible for ensuring they have adequate coverage, or they participate at their own risk.

By entering, you also grant permission for any digital images or footage of performances to be used for promotional, marketing, or social media purposes. If you do not agree to these terms, please notify the competition office in writing.

Doors open one hour prior to each session. Schools are encouraged to arrive early to ensure smooth scheduling.

If any school needs to withdraw after registering, please notify Infinity as soon as possible to help maintain the event's schedule.

Performers should be present at the start of their session, as withdrawals may affect the order of performances.

All necessary safety precautions will be implemented to ensure performers' well-being; however, Infinity will not be liable for any injuries sustained by competitors or for any damage to property during the event.

Teachers, please note: No additions to the program will be made unless an omission was due to an oversight by Infinity Education Dance and Vocal Competition.

Infinity Education Dance and Vocal Competition reserves the right to modify the program at any time as needed. Teachers Note: Dates, performance venues, and event details are subject to change.

Dance Groups Small & Large & Open & Elite Sections

Small Groups consist of 4 to 14 performers.

These routines are designed to showcase teamwork and precision, allowing each dancer to shine while maintaining strong group cohesion. Judges will be looking for clean formations, musicality, and dynamic stage presence.

Large Groups consist of 10 or more performers.

These routines highlight creative choreography, strong unison work, and overall impact. Large groups should demonstrate excellent spacing, transitions, and energy that fills the stage.

For Groups with 40-plus dancers, please contact Jenny.
0423241774

Open Troupe Sections are designed for groups who train LESS than 8 hours a week.

Elite Troupe Sections are designed for groups who train MORE than 8 hours a week.

Code of Conduct

- Infinity Education Dance and Vocal Groups are expected to treat everyone with courtesy, empathy, and respect, regardless of age, abilities, identity, religion, or cultural background.
- Maintain the integrity of the competition through ethical conduct and upholding the rules and terms of the competition.
- Avoid public commentary or criticism of teachers, performers, performances, decisions, or outcomes.
- Maintain strict impartiality in all interactions and decisions

Schedule

Infinity Education Dance and Vocal Competition does not operate on a fixed schedule. Instead, schedules are created based on the number and type of entries received to best accommodate the majority of participants.

- The final breakdown is determined only after all entries have been processed.
- This approach allows us to ensure that competition days finish at reasonable times. A pre-set schedule would not always allow for this flexibility.
- Schedules are emailed approximately 14 days prior to each event.

Access Backstage

Competitors

- A compulsory competitor pass must be purchased for every performer.
- All performers must be wearing a competitors wristband on their RIGHT wrist.
- Performers will be unable to access the change rooms or stage without a performer wristband.

Music

All music must be uploaded via www.musicuploads.com.au
Please familiarise yourselves with this platform, Music Uploads.

We highly encourage you to look at their website and watch all the how-to-upload-music videos; and this is also the platform we will use for our online schools to upload their routines.

- Music must be uploaded to the Music Uploads platform by the specified due date.
- It is Important that each track is correctly uploaded according to the program act number.
- Any uploads received after the deadline will incur a late fee of $10 per track.
- We do advise that in case you have uploaded the wrong track, please have your music on your laptop or music on your phone, as we do not take USB on the day.
- Please ensure that all music is suitable and appropriate for a family-friendly and school-focused event. Failure to comply with these guidelines may result in deductions or disqualification at the discretion of the directors.

Dance Sections Duos, Trios & Groups

Classical Ballet: Must include the classical dance form and demonstrate ballet technique, as well as showing grace, precision and formalised steps. Variations from the classical repertoire are not permitted.

Lyrical: Incorporates ballet, jazz and contemporary technique. Often uses music with lyrics to inspire the movement. The style focuses strongly on emotion and has an individual approach compared to other dance styles. The dancer's movements portray the emotion and story of the song with a precise nature.

No Tricks Lyrical: The same as regular Lyrical sections but reserved for performers who do not have any acro tricks in their routine. As a guide, acro tricks are defined as a move where the waist goes higher than the performer's head in a 'leaving the ground motion', for example, aerials/walkovers; however, cartwheels are permitted.

Contemporary: Incorporates abstract and extreme concepts. Contemporary dance should explore the dancer's body and range of movement. Using classical ballet technique but employs the use of the torso, floor work, and unpredictable changes of rhythm, speed, and direction. Choreography is physically intricate and versatile, incorporating dynamic and expressive movement, strength, and flexibility.

No Tricks Contemporary: The same as regular Contemporary sections but reserved for performers who do not have any acro tricks in their routine. As a guide, 'Acro tricks' are defined as a move where the waist goes higher than the performer's head in a 'leaving the ground motion,' for example, aerials/walkovers; however, cartwheels are permitted.

Jazz: Incorporates fast choreography to a variety of music from old to new. Current jazz technique should be shown including turns, kicks, jumps, floor work and arm and foot combinations.

No Tricks Jazz: The same as regular Jazz sections but reserved for performers who do not have any acro tricks in their routine.

As a guide, Acro tricks are defined as a move where the waist goes higher than the performer's head in a 'leaving the ground motion', for example, aerials/walkovers; however, cartwheels are permitted.

Entertainment: Can be Broadway Jazz which is a dynamic, theatrical dance style blending traditional jazz technique with storytelling, character development, and dramatic choreography. Or it can be a Musical Theatre which is a theatrical performance that combines songs, spoken dialogue, acting and dance. Displaying elements such as humour and emotion through words, music, movement and technical ability.

Hip Hop: A range of street dance styles primarily performed to hip hop music or that have evolved as part of hip hop culture.

Tap: Demonstrating tap technique in any chosen tempo.

Boys Only: Any Style

All Abilities Dance: Any Style

Any Dance Style: may include genres such as acrobatics, tap or, if you have a third dance style.
